Miss Edith Hartzell,
Cor. Cliveden and Morton Sts., Jermainstown
Care Mrs. Sherwood.

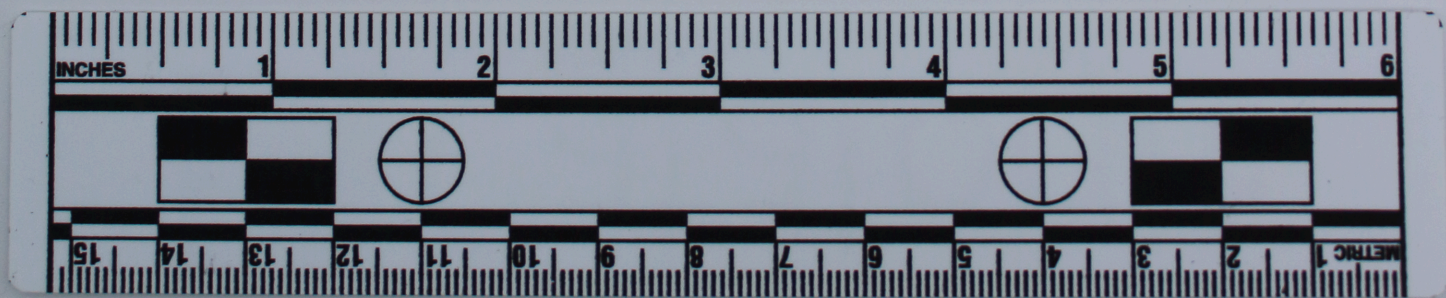

My dear

I received your postal and was glad for your sake as well as my own that you got another case. I hated to think of your leaving me, even to know you are still in Phila. though I cannot see you often is a comfort.

How do you like your present place? how are you getting along?

I will be at Mrs Kelys for a week or ten days more, then if Mrs Bowen goes away I will go stay with the children.

My affairs are adjusted for a time, at least and I do not have to worry about them just at present. Though that is not saying much.

I am well and thankful for all the blessings above.

I laughed every time I think if the way I hustled you out of that office. I could do nothing about your money and I think under the existing circumstances or conditions it will be more prudent to stay away from Mr C's office

It will not do to run the risk of a mistake, at least don't go without letting me know.

Hoping to see you whenever it is possible

Always your friend
G. W. de M.

Sunday.
